Why work with Hamilton Rentals?

Designed to help you mobilise resources fast and at short notice, we offer an adaptable choice of rental options that make it easy to provision AV equipment for temporary demands and a host of different scenarios.

With Hamilton Rentals you can adapt or change the rental period as needed – we won't penalise you or your customer should requirements change. Similarly, you can add new kit or remix the items you want to hire.

Plus, our experts are available to take care of delivery and installation and can even remain as an on-site resource for the duration of the event if needed.

Finally, you have the assurance of knowing that we're experienced at delivering AV solutions for a range of settings. That includes high profile events. Over the years, we've been called on to help out at the London Olympics, the Cricket World Cup, the King's coronation, multiple national and local elections and a raft of other major sporting events. We've even provided hire equipment for major West End theatre performance runs.

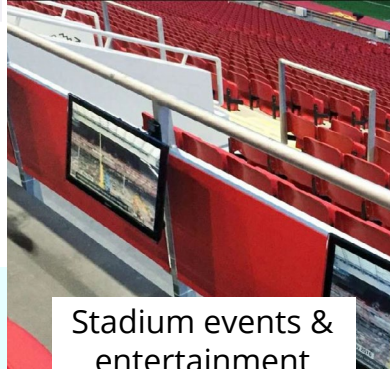

We know exactly which kit is best suited for indoor installation. And when it comes to public or external events, we can advise on which technologies will deliver maximum impact – no matter what the viewing conditions.
